

Cliff House No. 2, an acrylic by Jackie Carson is held by Jackie, Nancy Kravitz and Pam Gilbert. The three artists, all expert painters in watercolors and acrylics, have opened The Studio in the East side of Yares Gallery at 3625 Bishop Lane, Scottsdale, which features contemporary art. Although the three women share a common interest in color Jackie is best known for her abstracts on paper and canvas and Arizona desert scenes. Nancy uses unusual geometrical shapes in structural designs painted in strong color. Pam draws and paints action in acrylic on large canvasses, and is also noted for her watercolors.
