Earn Free Books for Pallin Library!

Changing Hands Bookstore's annual Books for Schools program will help Beth El earn books for the Congregation's Pallin Library. To participate, mention Books for Schools as you check out at Changing Hands. They will save a copy of your receipt and donate 10% of your purchase toward a gift certificate for our Pallin Library. Except for special orders, all merchandise counts towards Beth El's total credit -- not only new and used books, but also cards, calendars, music, and gifts! Changing Hands is located at 6428 South McClintock Dr., Tempe, AZ 85283 * 480-730-0205 * www.changinghands.com

Beth El will be having a special program at the Changing Hands Bookstore on Sunday, November 14 from 10-11:30 AM with activities spotlighting new and favorite Jewish books. Talmud Torah teachers will be leading the activities, Rabbi Lavinsky will be speaking that morning from 10:15 – 11 AM and Nancy Kravetz will be on site to sign copies of her book Remember me to the Little Ones which is available for purchase at Changing Hands as well as at Beth El's Gift Shop.

Changing Hands stocks books of Jewish interest as well as general books. The store carries both new and used books and has been very cooperative with the Jewish community for many years. Newly published books will be available as well as classics and Hanukkah gifts items. If there is a particular book that you are interested in purchasing, please fill out the form below and submit it to Janette Silverman by November 10 and we will try to have it ordered for you – books ordered this way will be able to be picked up at Beth El – you will be called when they arrive – after you submit your order, before it is placed, you will be called with a total of the cost of the books including tax. All materials must be paid for prior to the order being placed.
